READING | The Monkey Festival

קראו את החלק הראשון. השתמשו בטקסט בכל חלקי דף העבודה.

A I am at one of the most unusual festivals in the world - the Monkey Festival in Lopburi, Thailand. People are getting ready for the festival, so I finally have some time to write about my adventures.

B Everybody in town gets together and the entire town goes a little crazy on this day! Many people are dressed like monkeys, and the festival has live performances and dances.

C The first thing you notice when you look around town are the monkeys. They are everywhere! I can see a few of them right now. They are gathered together on the street corner, playing with each other and making loud noises.

D They may look cute, but you have to be careful. These monkeys can cause major trouble. They like to take things from people, especially food and drinks, and even valuable things, like handbags and sunglasses.

E This is an annual festival, and people look forward to it all year. Early in the morning, people prepare huge plates of fruit and put them on long tables. The tables look beautiful, but they aren’t going to stay that way.

F The best part of the festival is when thousands of excited monkeys jump on the tables and eat as much fruit as they possibly can. I heard that sometimes the monkeys even have food fights! I hope they have one today. What a crazy festival!
