Equality and Inequality

Grade 9 | Name: _____ | Date: _____

1. Complete the sentences.

1. Tom is as _____ as Ben. (tall)

2. This book is as _____ as the last book. (interesting)

3. The new car isn't as _____ as the old one. (expensive)

4. Her answer is not as _____ as his answer. (good)

5. She speaks as _____ as her teacher. (clearly)

2. Choose the correct answer.

1. The train is (as fast as / as faster as) the bus.

2. This task is (not as difficult as / not as more difficult as) that task.

3. The two bags are (as heavy as / heavier as) each other.

4. The second route isn't (as short as / shorter as) the first.

Equality and Inequality — Page 2

3. Correct or rewrite the sentences.

1. The bus is slower than the train. Rewrite using not as ... as.

---

2. The two phones have the same price. Rewrite using as ... as.

---

3. The old story is more interesting than the new one. Rewrite using not as ... as.

---

4. Analyze the complex sentence.

1. Although the new road is not as short as the old road, it is as safe as the main road because there are fewer cars.